CISC 1110          Assignment 0      Spring, 2017                Due: Feb. 1, 2017

Part I

Send me an email to ONE of my email addresses ONLY.
Send it to jajones20@verizon.net or to  jones@brooklyn.cuny.edu.

Use this EXACT subject line with NO extra words:   CISC 1110 Intro

In the body of the email, put only your name.

Do NOT combine Part I and Part III in the same email. They are filed separately.

Part II

Register for CodeLab and do the 4 exercises (10501-10504) under Chapter 0: Beginning. Begin working on Chapter 1, and do as many exercises as you can.

Part III

a. Download and install either Codeblocks or Dev C++ on your home computer (instructions below).

b. Type in and run the program that you wrote in lab today, and send both the program and the output to me as email attachments.   Send this in a SEPARATE email from Part I.

 Use this subject line with NO EXTRA WORDS:  A0 1110

Do NOT combine Part I and Part III in the same email. They are filed separately.

Compilers

If your home computer is an Apple iMac, or perhaps if you are running Windows Vista, you must use CodeBlocks; if you are running other versions of Windows, you may use either CodeBlocks or Dev-C++.
